BUSINESS OWNER RECOGNIZED WITH SECOND PLACE INTERNATIONAL AWARD

MARLBORO, NEW JERSEY - November 18, 2011 - Michelle A. Riklan, Managing Director of Riklan Resources, LLC., was recognized as the second (2nd) place winner of the Best Creative Resume Award conveyed in the annual Toast of the Resume Industry (TORI) awards hosted by Career Directors International (CDI), a global association of resume writers and career coaches.

Recognition of this caliber denotes Ms. Riklan's commitment to ingenuity, creativity, clarity, and visual appeal in professional resume development, and furthers demonstrates her unparalleled performance against international professional resume writers in this competition. CDI holds the TORI competition each year, conveying 27 awards from first to third place for nine separate categories including international resumes, technical resumes, creative resumes, executive resumes, cover letters, LinkedIn profiles, sales and marketing resumes, new graduate resumes, and military resumes. Categories are changed to reflect current employment and industry trends.

CDI President, Laura DeCarlo, stated that, "To win a TORI award represents the pinnacle of professional resume writing excellence. TORI winners are top performers who demonstrate they can create a visually distinctive, dynamic, and key-word rich professional resume."
